About the NWTF:

The National Wild Turkey Federation is a national 501(c)(3) nonprofit conservation organization dedicated to the conservation of the wild turkey and preservation of our hunting heritage.

Through dynamic partnerships with state, federal and provincial wildlife agencies, the NWTF and its more than 350,000 members have helped restore wild turkey populations across the country, raised and spent more than $286 million, and conserved nearly 14 million acres of habitat for all types of wildlife.

The NWTF was founded in 1973 and is headquartered in Edgefield, S.C.

Good Times. Great Cause.

Each year, thousands of NWTF members and volunteers flock to banquet halls and civic centers across North America to share stories, a meal and common goals – conserving wildlife and protecting our hunting heritage. And you're invited to join them.

If you've never attended a Hunting Heritage Banquet, you're in for a treat. You'll find games, raffles and auctions with chances to win exclusive NWTF merchandise and firearms. Plus, you'll be surrounded by like-minded sportsmen and sportswomen fellowshiping in the name of a great cause.

If you have attended a Hunting Heritage Banquet, we welcome you back and encourage you to bring a friend. If not, make the next closest banquet your first. Visit www.nwtf.org or call (800) THE-NWTF to find a banquet in your area.

Join the Flock!

It's through the grassroots efforts of chapter members that the NWTF has become a leader in conservation. The more members we have, the stronger our message and impact will be on hunting and conservation.

With your support, we can make a difference by improving wildlife habitat, creating more places to hunt and promoting our hunting tradition through NWTF's outreach programs.

For more information on how to become a member or become involved with a chapter, visit www.nwtf.org, call (800) THE-NWTF or fill out the panel on the back side of this brochure.
